OUR CLIENTS AND STAFF OUT AND ABOUT

WELCOME TO EVERGLOW

CREATED BY NORTH QUEENSLANDERS FOR NORTH QUEENSLANDERS

OUR PAST AT A GLANCE

Everglow is a not for profit association incorporated under the Associations Incorporation Act 1981 (Qld).

Our central office is in Townsville, Queensland, and we provide services in Townsville, Ingham and Ayr.

Everglow began as a pilot program in Townsville in 1988, under the Community Options Model, providing communitybased services to older people from Cultural and Linguistically Diverse backgrounds (CALD).

The pilot was successful, and the Ethnic Liaison Project was established in 1989. The project continued to grow reaching out to provide home care services in Ayr and Ingham to new Australians and first and second generation Australians. Ethnic Community Care Links was incorporated in 1996. In 2015, with the ECCLI brand and philosophy well established within the CALD community, the members decided to rename the association as Everglow and extend services to the broader community. Our basis for how we deliver services and conduct business is the principle to 'value me as I value you'. We believe that there is strength in diversity and community.

For over 35 years we have developed a reputation for working in partnership with our clients to provide personalised care that is dignified, respectful and focussed on maintaining individual autonomy and community connection.

Value Me, as / Value You ANNUAL REPORT 2023-24 | 5

Everglow Community Care Links Incorporated is committed to providing best practice, person centred care to our clients through a range of services listed below:

Allied Health – Our allied health professionals can help to prevent, diagnose, treat, and rehabilitate a whole range of conditions to help clients improve their ability to complete everyday activities and increase their health and quality of life through care, education, resources, and support.

Nursing — Nurses enable clients to maintain their health and wellbeing through support from medication management and assistance to continence management, health education, wound care, and chronic health management in liaison with GPs and other health professionals. While nursing is not available for CHSP clients it is available to all clients on Home Care Packages, (Level 1 & 2 at request of CM / Level 3 & 4 from commencement of package).

Domestic Assistance – Assistance with household tasks as identified in the client's individual Care Plan. Tasks may include, but are not limited to, bathroom and toilet cleaning, vacuum and moping, washing, ironing, and other basic tasks.

Meal Preparation — Meals may be prepared or pre-prepared by a Personal Care Worker (PCW) in the client's home and may include assistance with food storage, preparation or cooking as appropriate.

Social Support Services – Services are provided either in the client's home or in the community and may include assisting clients with communication and/or language facilitation, accompanying clients to appointments, shopping, bill paying and banking, friendly visits, or outings.

Social Activities — These may be one-on-one or larger group activities. Activities may be participation at Everglow functions, Gentle Exercise, Music Memories, Craft and Arts, or other organised activities to promote health, independence and community connection.

Personal Care — Direct assistance for a person to carry out normal selfcare tasks including, showering, grooming, and assisting a person in coping with continence, self-medication, mobility, and healthcare.

Home Maintenance – Maintenance of the home and garden to improve safety, accessibility, and independence within the home environment.

Transport – Assistance with transport can be provided to enable clients to attend appointments and participate in the community.

Respite Care – Respite services support carers to maintain their own interests knowing appropriate care is in place. Respite is a flexible service and may be provided either in the home or in a community setting.

THANK YOU

A WORD FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Hello everyone,

Welcome to the 2024 AGM and welcome to our valued clients and our special visitors and staff.

Well, another year has passed and Everglow has increased its clients, its staff and its revenue.

It is great to see our Company improving from year to year.

One of our biggest investments this year was our purchase of a new property in Ingham. We are so proud of our new premises and were happy to see quite a few clients attend our opening day. We also welcomed some VIPs on the day, including Rodger Bow, our former Chairman and the Deputy Mayor of Ingham. The office is spacious and the facilities to service our clients are roomy and comfortable.

We also sold our office in Ayr and rented much larger premises. They are also roomy and spacious and once again we were happy to welcome clients and VIPs to our recent opening. The Mayor of the Burdekin was a welcome guest and made a point of speaking to all our clients.

Along with our Townsville office we now have all three sites with a corporate look with signage, colours etc. Ingham and Ayr are looking at innovative ways to provide fun days out for our clients. The folk from Ayr took a trip up to Ingham and I believe Ingham is looking to reciprocate. Ayr has done quite a few road trips. They have been to Ravenswood, Charters Towers and a few other places.

Townsville is busy keeping clients occupied. They have movie days, run raffles and craft groups. Th monies from the raffles and the craft goods which are sold go into an account to pay for materials and of course morning tea and popcorn or ice cream for the movies! This means that our activities are virtually selffunded.

Our Treasurer and Finance Manager will talk to you about income and expenses but each year it is getting tougher to continue to increase revenue and keep costs to a minimum. Sadly, every one of us sees this in our personal lives and many companies are struggling to stay viable. We at Everglow endeavour to keep costs as low as we can for all our clients.

Of course, we would not be where we are without the support of our wonderful staff members, each of whom are committed to their roles and ensure that they do all possible to provide services to you, our wonderful customers. Without our customers we would not exist and without our fantastic staff there would be no Everglow. Huda and her executive team of Kim Davis, Sue Chapman and Crise Mapula lead the way with the support of their teams and ensure the business keeps running daily.

In each of the three sites we have local Managers who watch over their areas of concern. Belinda in Townsville, Judy in Ingham and Liam in Ayr each lead a team of dedicated staff.

I hope you enjoy your day and of course our wonderful lunch catered by the RSL club. I look forward to seeing you all on my travels this year and look forward to welcoming you to our AGM next year.

Once again, I would like to thank John Hathaway, Helen Stallan, Damien Farrington, Nela Allan and David Kingston for their support and also thanks to Megan Gunton, who diligently does our minutes for each board meeting.

Remember "Value me as I value you" are not just words but rather a motto by which Everglow lives.

Eileen McGrath

Chairman

A WORD FROM THE CEO

I am very proud and privileged to continue to serve you as the Chief Executive Officer of Everglow. It's an honour to present you with the annual CEO report for 2023-2024 for what was another successful year of operations.

This past year, the executive team have worked tirelessly to continue to improve our processes, to identify efficiencies, and to overcome the challenges that come with service delivery in a competitive sector. I believe we have finished this past year a stronger and more capable organisation through that hard work and dedication.

Our staff do a fantastic job each day and I continue to be humbled by the passion and care shown by the people who work at Everglow Community Care. They are the ones who bring our purpose to life, improving the quality of life for people in need, each and every day. None of our achievements would have been possible without our passionate staff who live our values daily. I feel privileged to lead such a great team.

A CHANGING SECTOR

A priority for the executive team has been in keeping abreast of the significant ongoing and upcoming changes in the aged care sector. We have implemented the initial phase of the aged care reform relating to organisational governance which included the establishment of a Quality Advisory Body and Consumer Advisory Body, changes to the screening of key personnel, and compliance with the make up of the governing body to include majority of independent non-executive members and a member with clinical experience.

Both the Quality Advisory Body and the Client Advisory Body have provided written reports on their activities to the Management Committee with recommendations for improvements which included changes to the Home Care Package statements, changes to the phone system, and ongoing review of our governance frameworks amongst other initiatives. I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the members involved in the bodies for their work this year and I look forward to their continued input into improving Everglow's services.

The major reform items which are yet to be finalised are the new Aged Care Act, the introduction of the Strengthened Aged Care Quality Standards, and the commencement of the Support at Home Program which are all due to come into effect from 1 July 2025.

While we do know some of the proposed details of the new legislation and program, there are still areas that are yet to be finalised. Notwithstanding, the executive team have been working to review our business model and structure in anticipation of the upcoming changes with what we do know so far.

GROWING THE WORKFORCE

Much of the aged care reform is targeted at making aged care sustainable into the future with a rapidly ageing population and the associated demand for care and services. It is predicted that by 2050, there will be double the number of over 85s and triple the number of over 65s than we currently have. Combine this with increasing competition for quality staff and an anticipated shortage of nursing staff, means that we are continuing to plan and implement strategies as a priority to ensure a sustainable long-term workforce to meet our ongoing operational needs and future growth.

We believe in supporting our people to grow and thrive at Everglow and we continue to provide a robust framework for working together. Over the past 12 months the executive team has reviewed and implemented improved systems for recruitment, induction, and workforce management and development. This is well supported by our internal training which covers both mandatory courses as well as accredited courses so we can grow and develop our own staff who we have recruited as having the right values.

INVESTMENT IN THE REGIONS

One of the principles of operating a not-for profit organization is that any profit made at the end of the year gets used for the benefit of our clients. This year, we invested in our regional communities with two new offices and activity spaces as well as the purchase of three new vehicles to support regional operations.

We were fortunate to find the right property for purchase at the right time in Ingham. The building has a welcoming feel with a number of activity and office spaces, and importantly it represents Everglow's longterm commitment to the communities in the Hinchinbrook area. The Ingham team are doing a great job and we are proud of their efforts in expanding services into the Cardwell area as well as meeting increased demand for services for people in Ingham and surrounds.

Value Me, as Value You ANNUAL REPORT 2023-24 | 13

After growing out of our own building in Ayr and after an extensive search for the right property, we took out a lease on a dual office and activities space which is also in Young Street. We invested in a small renovation to make it fit for purpose and we are delighted with the size and opportunities the new space provides. We were fortunate to be able to sell our old building quickly and those funds will be put toward the purchase of the current space should the opportunity arise. The team in Ayr are also doing a great job and we are pleased to see the activities and outings expanding to cater to the interests of a wider group of people.

MAKING IT WORK FOR US

The Government is investing $1.4 billion dollars in technological support for the aged care sector in this financial year which indicates big changes ahead for the way we currently engage with other providers, the government, health system and our clients. Everglow is continuing to invest in Information Technology to reduce manual work and boost productivity and get ready for these future changes in the sector.

Two of our biggest investments this year have been increased cyber security measures to ensure your data and confidential information is protected, and the upgrade of our financial systems. We have backed up the cyber security measures provided by our IT company with ongoing training for staff and enhanced protection of office based and remote work. On 1 July, we launched MYOB Advanced for all our financial accounting and reporting which will give us better oversight of expenditure and better data on which to base decisions as we head into a changing funding model as part of the sector reforms.

QUALITY AUDIT

In early April Everglow underwent a quality review which was conducted by the Aged Care Quality and Safety Commission. The Commission assesses the quality of care and services delivered by approved providers against the Aged Care Quality Standards to contribute to improved safety, quality and continuous improvement of services. In addition to the quality audit, the Commission also conducted a desk assessment of Everglow's emergency disaster management and response.

The process was comprehensive and a great learning experience for the organisation. We have identified areas where we need to improve and also confirmed the areas where we are doing well. Once again I would like to extend our appreciation to both clients and staff who took part in the audit process and gave their feedback and views to the audit team. Ultimately, the audit is about improving our services, and we believe we have come out stronger for the experience.

THANK YOU

In closing, I wish to sincerely thank Everglow's Management Committee members for their contribution over the past year and for their ongoing dedication to good governance and accountability.

I would also like to acknowledge and thank all our staff, volunteers and contractors for their hard work and ongoing commitment to the organisation and our clients. I am proud and deeply grateful for the efforts of our committed staff and thank every one of them.

I sincerely thank all our clients and their families for their ongoing support and for trusting Everglow to be your home care provider of choice.

I look forward to the next 12 months where we will continue to innovate and plan for our long term future in this changing sector.

OPERATIONS MANAGER REPORT

Sue Chapman Operations Manager

It is that time again, another year has passed. Memories made, laughs shared, challenges faced, and progress made. Everglow continues to grow and provide safe quality home care support and services in Ingham, Townsville and Ayr.

We have seen our greatest growth in the Hinchinbrook region. The Ingham service team led by Judy are firmly part of the Ingham community and are engaging new clients weekly. The move to our own building in Davidson Street has provided additional space with a welcoming office and activity area. Clients are encouraged to come and join in the dance, exercise, and relaxation classes as well as monthly luncheons. Ingham service team now provide nursing, with the welcoming addition of Katrina to the team.

Ayr, also has new premises, which were officially opened recently. Liam and his team have had a busy year promoting and establishing activities such as bus trips and regular fall prevention classes. With the new activity space, they will be offering movie days and other exciting social gatherings. The demand for services and supports is steady and with the increase in the number of people wishing to stay longer in their own homes, the nursing provided by our registered nurse adds a level of safe care for our clients.

Belinda leads and supports our largest service team in Townsville comprising of case managers, clinical case managers. nurses, intake officer, activity coordinator and officer as well as our valued personal care workers. As always, the variety of social activities and exercise classes are well supported by our Townsville clients. There is a steady increase of clients accessing Everglow services in the Townsville region. With the wide distances across our growing city, our rostering team is working to zone different suburbs and areas to ensure our personal care workers spend more time with clients than driving on the roads. All our service areas are supported by a newly appointed rostering team who commenced with Everglow in the last few months.

Scheduling is a complex and challenging role, adhering to all legislative and fair work requirements while ensuring appropriately gualified and available personal care workers are rostered to best provide the client's preferred day and time for support. This would be our greatest challenge to accomplish. The goal posts are forever changing, sometimes daily. Staff or family members become unwell and are unable to work, clients become unwell and need to cancel, client's conditions change, and they instantly require additional services. Together we strive to use understanding, kindness and respect to face these challenges to ensure services continue to be provided.

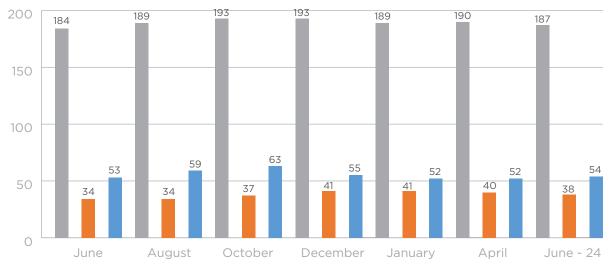

The graphs over page show the number of clients accessing Home Care Package (HCP) funded services and Commonwealth Home Support Services (CHSP) from June 2023 to June 2024.

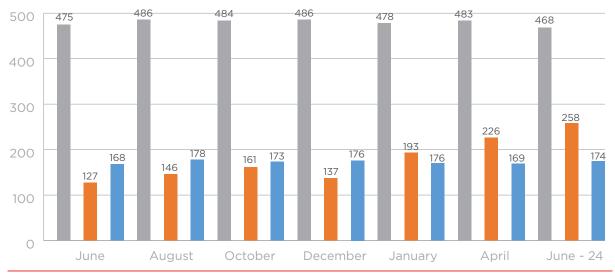

Value Me. as Value you ANNUAL REPORT 2023-24 | 15

HCP CLIENTS PER REGION JUNE 2023 - JUNE 2024 INCLUSIVE OF ON HOLD

CHSP CLIENTS PER REGION JUNE 2023 - JUNE 2024 INCLUSIVE OF ON HOLD

Earlier this year Everglow underwent an external audit by the Aged Care Quality and Safety Commission. This was the first full audit in 10 years for Everglow. There were areas highlighted that we are working towards strengthening to ensure we are compliant with the new standards expected to be released during the reform process. One of the areas is comprehensive assessment and care planning which can appear overwhelming with the detail required to ensure a holistic approach is taken. Our case managers will work with you during your care plan reviews aiming to complete the required documentation, while respecting and appreciating the level of sharing of information you are comfortable with.

Another area highlighted during the audit was the utilisation of home care package budgets to reflect clients are accessing the level of service identified during their ACAT assessment prior to joining Everglow. Our CEO has provided information sessions at all our sites over the last few months explaining the budgets and accumulation of funds, again this is an area case managers will be discussing with your during your care plan reviews.

Thank you for allowing us to provide support and services for you and we look forward to another great year ahead.

Getting old is like climbing a mountain, you get a little out of breath, but the view is much better!

Ingrid Bergman

CORPORATE SERVICES MANAGER REPORT

Kim Pierce Corporate Services Manager

The purpose of the Corporate Services team is to provide support to the CEO and the Executive Management team to meet the strategic objectives of the organisation. On a day to day basis, that means we provide advice, support and assistance to all aspects of the business so the organisation can continue to provide safe and high-quality care and services to our clients.

There have been no changes to the staffing for the Corporate Services team this year. Together the team looks after training, Human Resources, Work Health and Safety, quality management, internal auditing, IT systems, administration, vehicles and facilities.

The major focus for the last year has again been on keeping up to date with the progress of the aged care sector reforms. We are planning for the implementation of a new Aged Care Act, Strengthened Aged Care Quality Standards and the commencement of the Support at Home Program in July 2025.

AGED CARE QUALITY REVIEW

In April, Everglow underwent a quality review against the Aged Care Quality Standards. It was a great experience for us as Everglow has not had a full quality audit for around 10 years.

Through the audit process, we identified areas for improvement, and we are working towards making some positive changes to improve our care and services. We would like to thank the clients and staff who took part in the audit by providing feedback and speaking with the audit team. Your views and experiences are important to us and as always, we encourage you to let us know if you have a concern, complaint, or a compliment. It's the way we know what we are doing well and where we are not doing so well and need to improve.

FACILITIES AND VEHICLES

This year we acquired new office spaces for the Ingham and Ayr branches. The new building in Ingham has improved access for clients with better facilities, versatile activity spaces, and more private office space for the staff. The building is an investment in Everglow's growth and demonstrates a commitment to serving the Hinchinbrook community.

Due to increased growth in the Burdekin, the team outgrew the previously owned office space and after an extensive search for a facility that was fit for purpose and well located, we found a perfect new office just up the road at 139 Young Street Ayr. The building has more office space for the staff including a large meeting room, as well as a very big client activity space which is something that we haven't had before in Ayr. We are excited about the opportunity to be able to offer a more regular and varied activities program for the community in Ayr and surrounds.

Everglow has had a fleet of leased vehicles for some time and this year we expanded the fleet with the purchase of three new Nissan Qashqai SUVs. The new cars will be discreetly branded with the Everglow logo and have been allocated to each office. As they are medium size SUVs, they provide more versatile transport options for clients with plenty of space for wheelie walkers and other mobility devices.

CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT

Through Everglow's internal auditing process, we identify changes needed to policy and processes, gaps in staff knowledge for inclusion in the training calendar, and areas where we need to communicate better with staff and clients. The changes identified form the basis of our Plan for Continuous Improvement.

In order to support this process, we have established new quality committees which meet quarterly. Two of the committees, the Client Advisory Body, and the Quality Care Advisory Body are regulated by the sector and so far, we are excited by the work they are doing. The other new internal committees have been established to assist with governance and oversight of clinical care, quality and safety in the organisation.

A recent improvement initiative was to have the Home Care Agreement, CHSP Agreement, and Client Information Handbook translated into Greek and Italian languages utilising a translation service provided by the government. We are hoping to have these documents translated into other languages as the need and demand increases. This will help ensure we are providing information on agreements and services to those clients whose language is other than English.

In response to client feedback, we have also made significant improvements to the phone system which have resulted in incoming calls being handled more efficiently. We will continue to monitor call data to ensure an acceptable call acceptance rate is maintained.

STAFF AND TRAINING

There have been a number of improvements in the management and training of staff in the last year starting with the review of the Employee Code of Conduct. The Code of Conduct is one of our fundamental documents that provides guidance and direction for staff in the way they go about their work and conduct themselves. The Code of Conduct has been revised in order for Everglow to provide greater clarity over behaviour expectations as well as helping to meet our compliance obligations under recently enhanced employment law. The Aged Care Code of Conduct has now been included in Everalow's own code to reinforce the expectations and obligations in providing high quality and safe care to our clients.

In January we launched a new Human Resources Management Information System to all staff. This system will assist with the organisation's human resources function such as recruiting and onboarding, management of staff compliances and subcontractors, performance management, and time sheeting. The system also provides a comprehensive Learning Management System with thousands of sector specific and professional development training modules. This system helps us to better manage our most important asset which is our people.

With the addition of a dedicated Training Coordinator, we have reviewed the way we approach training beginning with the induction of new staff. Induction training has been increased to two days to fit in more comprehensive information for new staff and also now includes a questionand-answer session with an Everglow client which helps new staff understand what is important to clients when they are providing services in someone's home.

Our training suite has expanded to now include in-house accredited training for First Aid and CPR, and Medication courses. We are now working to include full certificate qualifications to offer to potential new staff or any staff members wishing to upskill. We are very fortunate and unique in the industry to be able to offer this level of training in-house to our staff.

FEEDBACK

In terms of staff and client feedback. compliments, and complaints, these are recorded and reported to the Board each meeting. Compliments consistently outweigh any complaints and are always focussed on the excellent service received by our care and activities staff. Complaints generally focus on occasions where communication has fallen down, but these are usually resolved to the client's satisfaction when they have had a chance to be heard and have received an apology. We make sure that we follow the principles of open disclosure when things go wrong, and clients and families appreciate our approach. Complaints are a valuable part of our improvement process as they can highlight where we might need to make changes.

Another feature of our quality system is the annual surveys of staff, clients and families. These surveys give us valuable feedback on how we are going both as a provider of aged care services and as an employer. The Client Feedback Survey has just been completed and we had a good return of about 10% of all clients. A summary of client experiences and sentiment is included in this annual report. The Staff Feedback Survey conducted this year had an excellent response rate of approximately 50% of staff. The report showed the Net Promoter Score, Sentiment Score and Experience Ratings are all higher than last year's survey and above benchmark. This is a reflection of the great work that is being done to support and reward our staff across all levels.

Once again this year, I remain proud to be part of this organisation and am excited to be able to continue to contribute to the organisation's future in a rapidly changing sector. I want to thank our hardworking Personal Care staff, Regional Managers, Intake Officers, Case Managers, Activities Officers and Clinical staff who are the face of Everglow. It is thanks to their dedication, hard work and professionalism that Everglow is the provider of choice for so many in our regions. I also want to thank the rest of the Executive team for their advice, support, and teamwork as we all strive to meet the strategic objectives of the organisation as directed by the Board. Lastly, I need to offer special thanks to my team who work tirelessly to support the organisation as a whole; Debra Hudson, Eve Burgess, and Evelyn Coleman as our reception and administration officers, Mona-lisa Lohia and Michelle Eigbobo in corporate support, Natalie Ellsley in HR, Linda Price in training, and Helen Trusselle in compliance.

WHAT OUR CLIENTS SAY

"The PCW who came today is just lovely. In her short time here she has done so much. It feels so good having someone I can trust in my home. We cleaned out the fridge. It was so lovely working together to get jobs done. She is so wonderful."

"I just want to thank all the team that helped my husband. I appreciate every professional activity you all did. The care was exactly what we needed and we appreciated it. You all helped take great care of him. Thank you Everglow."

GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

Everglow Community Care Links Incorporated is an Incorporated, Not for Profit, Benevolent organisation.

The role of the Management Committee is to set the strategic direction of the organisation, approve the strategic plan, appoint, guide and monitor the performance of the Chief Executive Officer in achieving the organisation's strategic objectives and oversee good governance practice.

MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE OPERATIONS

The Management Committee meets every month in scheduled meetings where committee members receive bimonthly or annual reports on key performance indicators relating to operations, strategy, risk and compliance from the Chief Executive Officer.

In addition to attending meetings, Management Committee members read and analyse Board papers and reports prepared by management, engage in strategic planning sessions, visit service offices and locations and participate in discussions with management, staff and other key stakeholders.

PURPOSE AND NOT-FOR-PROFIT NATURE OF A REGISTERED ENTITY

Everglow is a not-for-profit association whose purpose is to advance health, social and public welfare by providing person centred community-based services to frail and older people and people experiencing a disability. Together with our clients and the community we work in partnerships to provide programs and services that strengthen individual independence and autonomy and foster social connection and cohesion. We believe that life is a journey and that neither age or physical or mental infirmity can diminish the unique characteristics each individual brings to this earth and our community. We live what we believe through our service delivery and especially through our holistic wellness program.

Throughout our history our founding purpose as set out in our Constitution has remained central to our operations.

ACCOUNTABILITY TO MEMBERS (Respect the right of members and other stakeholders and make timely and balanced disclosure)

Everglow has members and other stakeholders. The management Committee is accountable to the members for the conduct of Everglow's affairs and the pursuit of our founding purpose and objectives as set out in the Constitution. Each year members of Everglow receive notice of the Annual General Meeting where the full financial report is presented to members together with an Annual Report and Management Committee members are elected.

Outside of the Annual General Meeting members are able raise matters of concern directly with the Chairman and the CEO. Our financial statements are lodged with and are publicly available at the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission (ACNC).

Everglow provides services funded by government requiring evidence to be submitted as to how that funding is expended. Many of our services are required to comply with external service standards as prescribed in funding deeds or by law. For many of these, Everglow's compliance with the service standards is independently audited as part of an accreditation process. In some cases, Everglow must achieve accreditation in order to gain a Licence to operate the service. These standards require organisations to evidence good governance and a commitment to quality, including complaints management, privacy and whistle-blowing processes. Everglow maintains a public website www.everglow. org.au and through this website and other communication channels we communicate to the public and our other stakeholders about various activities, performance and services of Everglow.

COMPLIANCE WITH AUSTRALIAN LAWS (Act ethically and responsibly)

We recognise that as a registered entity under the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012 (ACNC Act) Everglow must comply with Australian laws. In accordance with the ACNC Act, the ACNC is the lead regulator and the ACNC Act is the main law applicable to Everglow in relation to corporate governance. Everglow holds tax endorsements and concessions and are therefore also subject to the Income Tax Assessment Act administered by the Australian Taxation Office.

All Management Committee Members have been briefed about their duties as "responsible entities" under the ACNC Act. The Management Committee is responsible for a culture which promotes ethical and responsible behaviour and in setting the tone for Everglow in accordance with our Founding Purpose and Values, strives to lead by example when it comes to acting ethically and responsibly. The Management Committee Code of Conduct and our Values apply to the Management Committee, Management and staff of Everglow. They specify behavioural standards necessary to maintain confidence in Everglow's integrity.

Understanding the Code of Conduct and our Values is an integral part of induction programs for the Management Committee and staff and are regularly reminded of the necessity to preserve these Values and expectations. All Management Committee members, senior executives and staff are expected to comply with relevant laws and codes of conduct of relevant professional bodies, and to act with integrity, compassion and respect at all times when dealing with colleagues. clients and others involved in our mission. Everglow has adopted the Everglow ethics policy suite and through these policies we seek to uphold our good reputation and aim to safeguard our staff and our clients, many of whom are vulnerable. They are designed to reinforce a culture in which honesty, integrity and business ethics are a part of everyday behaviour.

AGED CARE CODE OF CONDUCT

The Aged Care Code of Conduct was introduced by the Commonwealth Government on 1 December 2022. Everglow Management Committee, executive team and all staff members have acknowledged the Aged Care Code of Conduct.

GOVERNING BODY STATEMENT

As part of the Aged Care governance reforms home care providers are now required to provider a statement to the Department of Health and Aged Care whether they did or did not comply with its duties under the aged care legislations. This statement is submitted by the 31 October of every year. Everglow has complied with this requirement in the reporting period.

INSURANCE OF OFFICERS

During the financial year, Everglow paid a premium to insure the Management Committee members and secretaries of the Company.

EVERGLOW COMMUNITY CARE LINKS INCORPORATED FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE 2023/2024

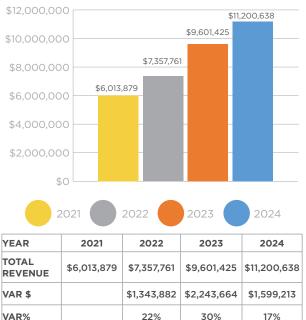

I am happy to report that our 2024 full year financial results reflect continuing growth across the organisation. specifically in client numbers, service provision, and revenue.

The year also saw Everglow make the following significant financial investments:

- Purchase of Ingham property as new premises for our Ingham operations
- Purchase of three new motor vehicles for Avr. Ingham and Townsville offices
- Moving to bigger and better premises in Ayr, and
- Upgrading to MYOB Advanced an integrated Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) software that will enable us to streamline accounting workflows and improve financial reporting and productivity.

FINANCIAL RESULTS

We continued to build on our financial success with a total revenue of $11.2 million, representing a 17% increase from the previous year (see graph below). Growth in service hours, a 27% increase in CHSP income, 11% increase in HCP income, the receipt of two government grants (worth $156k), and interest earnings from short term deposits all contributed to the increase in revenue.

TOTAL REVENUE 2021 - 2024

Total expenses for 2024 came in at $10.7 million (see graph below), which is a 30% increase from the previous year. This upward movement was due to the substantial increase in wages and cost of sales.

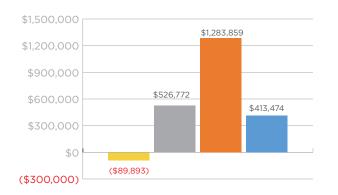

TOTAL EXPENSES 2021 - 2024

VAR%		12%	22%	30%

The resulting net profit of $413,474 (see graph over page) represents a Net Profit Margin of 4% (down from 13% last year). This downward trend was due to a 30% increase in total expenses, mainly driven by the Fair Work Commission (FWC) mandated wage increase for aged care workers from 1 July 2023.

FINANCIAL POSITION

This graph shows our net assets value of $2.2 million (up by $413k) at the end of 2024 financial year. Net Assets increased by 23% from previous year, driven by Everglow's investment in the regions through:

- Property acquisition (Ingham),
- Purchase of various plant & equipment, and
- Purchase of motor vehicles (Ayr, Ingham, Townsville).

SOFTWARE INVESTMENT: MYOB ACCOUNTRIGHT TO MYOB ADVANCED

In 2024, we implemented a substantial upgrade to our accounting software in order to create additional efficiencies within the finance function: we transitioned from MYOB AccountRight to MYOB Advanced.

It was a massive undertaking which was, at times, exhausting. But we never lost sight of the immense impact that this new system would provide. It will minimise manual processes and allow Everglow's finance team to process data efficiently and produce meaningful and detailed reports. We have long outgrown the old system and needed something that would automate financial workflows and make it easier to manage financial data. We went live with MYOB Advanced on 1 July 2024.

FUTURE CHALLENGES

The Management Committee and Executive Team face challenging times ahead.

As we move into the 2025 financial year and beyond, we are mindful of shifting economic conditions, industry-wide workforce and skills shortages, an aging population and continuing Aged Care Reforms. Strategic planning and preparations for these challenges are well under way.

Still, no matter these challenges, we are committed to continuously providing our clients with high-quality and innovative aged care services.

After all, Everglow's purpose and existence is built on our ability to support our clients to live their best lives, regardless of circumstances or where they live.

The accompanying notes form part of these financial statements.

The financial report covers Everglow Community Care Links Incorporated as an individual entity. Everglow Community Care Links Incorporated is a not-for-profit Association, registered and domiciled in Australia.

The principal activities of the Association for the year ended 30 June 2024 were provide services under the Commonwealth Home Support Program, Home Care Packages and the Queensland Community Care Program.

The functional and presentation currency of Everglow Community Care Links Incorporated is Australian dollars.

Comparatives are consistent with prior years, unless otherwise stated.

1 Basis of Preparation

In the opinion of those charged with Governance the entity is not a reporting entity since there are unlikely to exist users of the financial statements who are not able to command the preparation of reports tailored so as to satisfy specifically all of their information needs. These special purpose financial statements have been prepared to meet the reporting requirements of the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012.

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the recognition and measurement requirements of the Australian Accounting Standards and Accounting Interpretations (with the exception of AASB 16 Leases), and the disclosure requirements of AASB 101 Presentation of Financial Statements, AASB 107 Statement of Cash Flows, AASB 108 Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors and AASB 1054 Australian Additional Disclosures.

The Association has not complied with the recognition and measurement requirements of AASB 16 Leases. The Association has not assessed the impact of this on its financial statements.

The financial statements have been prepared on an accruals basis and are based on historical costs modified, where applicable, by the measurement at fair value of selected non-current assets, financial assets and financial liabilities.

Significant accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these financial statements are presented below and are consistent with prior reporting periods unless otherwise stated.

Material Accounting Policies 2

Revenue and other income (a)

Revenue from contracts with customers

The core principle of AASB 15 is that revenue is recognised on a basis that reflects the transfer of promised goods or services to customers at an amount that reflects the consideration the entity expects to receive in exchange for those goods or services.

Generally the timing of the payment for sale of goods and rendering of services corresponds closely to the timing of satisfaction of the performance obligations, however where there is a difference, it will result in the recognition of a receivable, contract asset or contract liability.

None of the revenue streams of the entity have any significant financing terms as there is less than 12 months between receipt of funds and satisfaction of performance obligations.

Value Me, as Value You ANNUAL REPORT 2023-24 | 33

2 Material Accounting Policies

(a) Revenue and other income

Specific revenue streams

The revenue recognition policies for the principal revenue streams of the entity are:

Grant Revenue

Where grant income arises from an agreement which is enforceable and contains sufficiently specific performance obligations then the revenue is recognised when control of each performance obligations is satisfied.

Each performance obligation is considered to ensure that the revenue recognition reflects the transfer of control and within grant agreements there may be some performance obligations where control transfers at a point in time and others which have continuous transfer of control over the life of the contract.

Where control is transferred over time, generally the input methods being either costs or time incurred are deemed to be the most appropriate methods to reflect the transfer of benefit.

Revenue recognition policy for contracts which are either not enforceable or do not have sufficiently specific performance obligations (AASB 1058).

Amounts arising from grants in the scope of AASB 1058 are recognised at the assets fair value when the asset is received. The Association considers whether there are any related liability or equity items associated with the asset which are recognised in accordance with the relevant accounting standard.

Once the assets and liabilities have been recognised then income is recognised for any remaining asset value at the time that the asset is received.

Revenue recognition policy for contracts which are either not enforceable or do not have sufficiently specific performance obligations

The revenue recognition policies for the principal revenue streams of the entity are:

Donations

Donations collected, including cash and goods for resale, are recognised as revenue when the entity gains control of the asset.

Interest

Interest is recognised on receipt.

Statement of financial position balances relating to revenue recognition

Contract assets and liabilities

Where the amounts billed to customers are based on the achievement of various milestones established in the contract, the amounts recognised as revenue in a given period do not necessarily coincide with the amounts billed to or certified by the customer.

2 Material Accounting Policies

(a) Revenue and other income

Statement of financial position balances relating to revenue recognition

When a performance obligation is satisfied by transferring a promised good or service to the customer before the customer pays consideration or the before payment is due, the entity presents the contract as a contract asset, unless the entity's rights to that amount of consideration are unconditional, in which case the entity recognises a receivable.

When an amount of consideration is received from a customer prior to the entity transferring a good or service to the customer, the entity presents the contract as a contract liability.

Other income

Other income is recognised on an accruals basis when the entity is entitled to it.

(b) Income tax

The entity is exempt from income tax under Division 50 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997.

(c) Goods and services tax (GST)

Revenue, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of goods and services tax (GST), except where the amount of GST incurred is not recoverable from the Australian Taxation Office (ATO).

Receivables and payable are stated inclusive of GST.

Cash flows in the statement of cash flows are included on a gross basis and the GST component of cash flows arising from investing and financing activities which is recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority is classified as operating cash flows.

(d) Volunteer services

No amounts are included in the financial statements for services donated by volunteers.

(e) Property, plant and equipment

Each class of property, plant and equipment is carried at cost less, where applicable, any accumulated depreciation and impairment.

Items of property, plant and equipment acquired for significantly less than fair value have been recorded at the acquisition date fair value.

Land and buildings

Land and buildings are measured using the cost model.

Value Me, as Value You ANNUAL REPORT 2023-24 | 35

2 Material Accounting Policies

(e) Property, plant and equipment

Plant and equipment

Plant and equipment are measured using the cost model.

Depreciation

Property, plant and equipment, excluding freehold land, is depreciated on a straight-line basis over the asset's useful life to the entity, commencing when the asset is ready for use.

(f) Financial instruments

Financial instruments are recognised initially on the date that the entity becomes party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

On initial recognition, all financial instruments are measured at fair value plus transaction costs (except for instruments measured at fair value through profit or loss where transaction costs are expensed as incurred).

Financial assets

All recognised financial assets are subsequently measured in their entirety at either amortised cost or fair value, depending on the classification of the financial assets.

Classification

On initial recognition, the entity classifies its financial assets into the following categories, those measured at:

amortised cost

Financial assets are not reclassified subsequent to their initial recognition unless the entity changes its business model for managing financial assets.

Amortised cost

The entity's financial assets measured at amortised cost comprise trade and other receivables and cash and cash equivalents in the statement of financial position.

Subsequent to initial recognition, these assets are carried at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method less provision for impairment.

Interest income, foreign exchange gains or losses and impairment are recognised in profit or loss. Gain or loss on derecognition is recognised in profit or loss.

2 Material Accounting Policies

(f) Financial instruments

Financial assets Impairment of financial assets

Trade receivables

Impairment of trade receivables have been determined using the simplified approach in AASB 9 which uses an estimation of lifetime expected credit losses. The entity has determined the probability of non-payment of the receivable and multiplied this by the amount of the expected loss arising from default.

The amount of the impairment is recorded in a separate allowance account with the loss being recognised in finance expense. Once the receivable is determined to be uncollectable then the gross carrying amount is written off against the associated allowance.

Where the entity renegotiates the terms of trade receivables due from certain customers, the new expected cash flows are discounted at the original effective interest rate and any resulting difference to the carrying value is recognised in profit or loss.

Financial liabilities

The entity measures all financial liabilities initially at fair value less transaction costs, subsequently financial liabilities are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method.

The financial liabilities of the entity comprise trade and other payables.

Impairment of non-financial assets (g)

At the end of each reporting period the entity determines whether there is evidence of an impairment indicator for non-financial assets.

Where an indicator exists and regardless for indefinite life intangible assets and intangible assets not yet available for use, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated.

(h) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprises cash on hand, demand deposits and short-term investments which are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value.

Value Me, as Value You ANNUAL REPORT 2023-24 | 37

2 Material Accounting Policies

(i) Leases

The Association has not applied AASB 16 Leases. Lease payments in relation to property, are charged as expenses on a straight-line basis over the life of the lease term.

(j) Employee benefits

Provision is made for the entity's liability for employee benefits, those benefits that are expected to be wholly settled within one year have been measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liability is settled .

Employee benefits expected to be settled more than one year after the end of the reporting period have been measured at the present value of the estimated future cash outflows to be made for those benefits. In determining the liability, consideration is given to employee wage increases and the probability that the employee may satisfy vesting requirements. Cashflows are discounted using market yields on high quality corporate bond rates incorporating bonds rated AAA or AA by credit agencies, with terms to maturity that match the expected timing of cashflows. Changes in the measurement of the liability are recognised in profit or loss.

3 Critical Accounting Estimates and Judgments

Those charged with governance make estimates and judgements during the preparation of these financial statements regarding assumptions about current and future events affecting transactions and balances.

These estimates and judgements are based on the best information available at the time of preparing the financial statements, however as additional information is known then the actual results may differ from the estimates.

The significant estimates and judgements made have been described in the accounting policies in Note 2.

Key estimates - grant income

For many of the grant agreements received, the determination of whether the contract includes sufficiently specific performance obligations was a significant judgement involving discussions with a number of parties at the entity, review of the proposal documents prepared during the grant application phase and consideration of the terms and conditions.

Grants received by the entity have been accounted for under both AASB 15 and AASB 1058 depending on the terms and conditions and decisions made.

If this determination was changed then the revenue recognition pattern would be different from that recognised in these financial statements.

Opinion

We have audited the special purpose financial report of Everglow Community Care Links (the Association), which comprises the statement of financial position as at 30 June 2024, the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of material accounting policy information, and the responsible persons declaration.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial report of the Company has been prepared in accordance with Division 60 of the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012 ("ACNC") and associated Regulations, including:

- (a) giving a true and fair view of the Company's financial position as at 30 June 2024 and of its financial performance and cash flows for the year then ended; and
- complying with Australian Accounting Standards and Division 60 of the Australian Charities and (b) Not-for-profits Commission Regulation 2022.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report section of our report. We are independent of the Association in accordance with the ethical requirements of the Accounting Professional & Ethical Standards Board's APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (including Independence Standards)(the Code) that are relevant to our audit of the financial report in Australia. We have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Emphasis of Matter – Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 1 to the financial report, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial report has been prepared for the purpose of fulfilling the directors' financial reporting responsibilities under the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012 ("ACNC") and associated Regulations. As a result, the financial report may not be suitable for another purpose. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Responsibilities of the Committee for the Financial Report

The committee members responsible for the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012 ("ACNC") and associated Regulationand for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view and is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial report, the directors are responsible for assessing the ability of the Association to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Association or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Independent Auditor's Report

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this financial report.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by those charged with governance.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of those charged with governance's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the entity's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial report or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of the auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the entity to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial report, including the disclosures, and whether the financial report represents the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during the audit.
